A N A C T

FOR THE RELIEF OF THE INHABITANTS OF CITIES AND TOWNS UPON THE PUBLIC LANDS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That whenever any portion of the public lands of the United States have been or shall be settled upon and occupied as a town site, and therefore not subject to entry under the agricultural pre-emption laws, it shall be lawful, in case such town shall be incorporated, for the corporate authorities thereof, and if not incorporated, for the judge of the county court for the county in which such town may be situated, to enter at the proper land office, and at the minimum price, the land so settled and occupied, in trust for the several use and benefit of the occupants thereof, according to their respective interests; the execution of which trust, as to the disposal of the lots in such town, and the proceeds of the sales thereof, to be conducted under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the legislative authority of the State or Territory in which the same may be situated.

Town authorities, etc., may enter public lands occupied as town sites.

Trust, how executed.

Provided: That the entry of the land intended by this act to be made shall be made, or a declaratory statement of the purpose of the inhabitants to enter it as a town site under this act shall be filed with the register of the proper land office, prior to the commencement of the public sale of the body of land in which it is included, and that the entry or declaratory statement shall include only such land as is actually occupied by the town and the title to which is in the United States. If upon surveyed lands the entry shall in its exterior limit be made in conformity to the legal subdivisions of the public lands authorized by the act of twenty-fourth April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and where the inhabitants are in number one hundred and less

Entry, etc., when to be made.

To include what.

PREScribing RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE EXECUTION OF THE TRUST ARISING UNDER AN ACT OF CONGRESS, ENTITLED "AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF THE INHABITANTS OF CITIES AND TOWNS UPON THE PUBLIC LANDS," APPROVED MARCH 2, 1867.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That when the corporate authorities of any town or city, or the Probate Judge of any county in this Territory, (who, for the purposes of this Act, and of receiving and executing the trust declared by the Act of Congress hereinafter mentioned, shall be deemed and is hereby designated as the Judge of the county court for such county), in which any town or city may be situated, shall have entered at the proper land office the land or any part of the land settled and occupied as the site of such town, pursuant to and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act for the relief of the inhabitants of cities and towns upon the public lands," approved March 2, 1867, and any amendments that may be made thereto, it shall be the duty of such corporate authorities or judge (as the case may be), and they are hereby directed and required, to dispose of and convey the title to such land, or to the several blocks, lots, parcels or shares thereof to the persons entitled thereto, to be ascertained as hereinafter prescribed. Deeds of conveyance for the same shall be executed by the Mayor of the city or town, under the seal of the corporation, when the entry shall be made by the corporate authorities of such city or town; and by the Judge of Probate when the entry shall be made by such Judge, and in all cases said deeds shall be acknowledged before and certified by an officer competent under the laws of this Territory to take acknowledgments of deeds of conveyance of real estate.

and Judge of Probate.

SEC. 2. That within thirty days after the entry of any such lands, the corporate authorities, or judge, entering the same, shall give public notice of such entry in at least five public places within such town or city, and by publishing such notice in some newspaper printed and published in this Territory, having a general circulation in such town or city. Said notice shall be published once in each week for at least three successive months, and shall contain an accurate description of the lands so entered as stated in the certificate of entry or duplicate receipt received from the officers of the land office.

SEC. 3. That each and every person or association, or company of persons, or persons or corporation claiming to be the rightful owner of possession, occupant or occupants, or to be entitled to the occupancy or possession of such lands, or to any lot, block, share or parcel thereof, shall, within six months after the first publication of such notice, in person, or by his, her or their agent or attorney, sign a statement in writing, containing an accurate description of the particular parcel or parts of land in which he, she or they claim to have an interest, and the specific right, interest or estate therein, which he, she or they claim to be entitled to receive, and deliver the same to the clerk of the Probate Court of the county in which such town or city is situated, and the clerk of said court shall enter such statement in a book to be kept for that purpose, and file and preserve the same in his office, noting the day of filing. The filing of which statement shall be considered as notice, to all persons claiming any interest in the lands described therein, of the claim of the party filing the same, and all persons failing to make and deliver such statement within the time limited in this section shall be forever barred the right of claiming or recovering such land, or any interest or estate therein, or in any part, parcel or share thereof in any court of law or equity. Provided, That when good cause is shown why such statement could not be filed within the time herein specified, the Judge may extend the time not exceeding one year from the first publication of said notice.

SEC. 4. That if at the expiration of six months after the first publication of the notice as aforesaid, it shall be found by the statements filed that there are adverse claimants to any tract or parcel of land it shall be the duty of the Judge of Probate to cause notice to be served upon said claimants or their agent or attorney, (taking up each case in the order of filing) to appear before the Probate Court of the county in which such tract or parcel of land may be situated, and prosecute their claim upon a day to be appointed by said court, not less than five nor more than thirty days from the service of such notice; the statements filed as aforesaid shall stand in said court in the place of pleadings, and an issue be made thereon; and on the day set for the hearing, the judge shall proceed to hear the proof adduced and allegations of the parties, and decide according to the justice of the case. The court shall cause full minutes of the testimony to be kept, which shall be preserved with the papers in the case, and be entered upon the records of said court the decision at length. If either party shall feel aggrieved at the decision of said court, he, she or they shall have the right of appeal to the District Court as in other cases, and upon the perfection of such appeal the court shall cause the testimony and written proofs adduced, together with the statements of the parties and the judgment of the court to be certified by the District Court, to be there tried anew without pleadings except as above provided.

by him in accordance with the judgment entered as aforesaid; each case shall be taken up by the court in the order in which the statements have been filed. If the Judge of Probate shall be a claimant of lands in any city or town in his county he may file the statement required in section three of this act in the Probate Court of an adjoining county, who shall cause notice thereof to be given to all adverse claimants, if any, and to the Mayor of such city or town, and in cases of unincorporated towns, to the Justice of Peace of the precinct in which such town may be situated; and the Probate Court of such adjoining county shall proceed in the examination and decision of the case as provided in this act as in other cases, and upon the certificate of said court a deed to the lands shall be made to the party or parties entitled thereto, as provided in this section; Provided, That if there shall be an adverse claimant or claimants to any tract so claimed by any Judge of Probate, and a statement shall have been filed as required in section three of this act, the Probate Court shall cause the same to be certified to the Probate Court of the county selected to hear and determine such case. A copy of the final judgment in all cases appealed under this act shall authorize the Mayor or Judge to make conveyance as hereinbefore provided in other cases, or withhold it according to such judgment. In cases where the Judge of Probate, who shall hold the lands in trust, is a party claimant to any portion thereof, and the final judgment of the proper tribunal shall be in his favor, such decision shall operate to discharge the trust in the portion of land so assigned to him. If the Mayor of any city or town shall be a claimant of any lands in such city or town, the Recorder of such city shall, upon the certificate of the Probate Court, made as in case of other claimants, execute a deed of conveyance to such Mayor for the lands finally adjudged to him by the court under the same rules and regulations as prescribed in other cases.

SEC. 6. That a change of venue, as in suits at law, shall be allowed in all cases arising under this act.

SEC. 7. That within thirty days after the expiration of the six months prescribed in section three for filing statements, the corporate authorities or Judge holding the title to the lands described in the notice published, as required in section two, shall make a statement in writing, containing a true account of all moneys by them or him expended in the acquisition of the title and the administration or execution of the trust to that time, including the money paid by them or him for the purchase of said lands, all necessary traveling expenses, all moneys paid for publishing and posting notices, and for all other necessary and proper expenses incident to such trust to that time, which statement shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the Probate Court of the county in which such town or city may be situated, and shall be open for inspection by all persons interested during ordinary business hours.

Statement of expenses to be filed with clerk of Probate Court open for inspection.

SEC. 8. That before the corporate authorities or Judge holding any such lands in trust, as aforesaid, shall be required to execute, acknowledge, or deliver any deed of conveyance thereof, as hereinbefore provided, to any person or persons claiming and adjudged to be entitled to such deed, such person or persons shall pay, or tender to the Mayor or Judge, as the case may be, the sum of money chargeable on the part thereof to be conveyed by such deed, to be ascertained by taking the whole amount of the cost of the land of which it is a part, and expenses stated in the account, as prescribed in section seven, in the proportion which the area of such lot shall bear to the whole amount of land entered, after deducting the area of all streets, alleys, and public grounds in such city or town, and the reasonable charges for preparing, executing, and acknowledging such deed, including the interest on the money expended: Provided, errors in measurement or computation shall not invalidate any proceeding under this act.

Payment of lands to be made before receiving deed therefor.

SEC. 9. That whenever the title to such lands shall be held by the corporate authorities of any town or city, all lands designated for public use by such corporate authorities, as streets, lanes, avenues, alleys, parks, commons and public grounds, shall vest in and be held by the corporation absolutely, and shall not be claimed adversely by any person or persons whomsoever. And the Judge of Probate who shall have entered any lands in trust for any town or city which may afterwards become incorporated, shall, under the same conditions, convey by deed to the corporation thereof the lands designated for the use of the public as aforesaid. That in case of the death or disability of the Judge of Probate, or Mayor, who may have entered the lands in trust for any town or city under the law of Congress as aforesaid before the complete execution of such trust, the same trust shall vest in his successor in office, who shall proceed with the execution of the same in the same manner and under the same conditions imposed by this Act upon the Judge or Mayor receiving the trust in the first instance.

Judge of Probate to convey deed for lands for public use.

Unclaimed lands reserved for public squares, etc.

To be sold at public or private sale.

Money to be paid into County Treasury.

Rate of fees to be charged.

SEC. 10. If there shall remain any unclaimed lands within the limits of such city or town after the expiration of six months from the publication of the notice provided in section three, the corporate authorities, in cases where the lands shall have been entered by them, and the Judge of Probate in cases where the lands shall have been entered by him, shall cause the same to be surveyed and laid out into suitable blocks and lots, and shall reserve such portions as may be deemed necessary for public squares, school-houses or hospital lots, and shall cause all necessary streets, roads, lanes and alleys to be laid out through the same, a plat of which, properly certified, shall be recorded in the Recorder's office of the county in which the same may be situated; and the Mayor of such city or town, or Judge as aforesaid may sell the lots and blocks so laid out—and not reserved for public use—in suitable parcels, to possessors of adjoining lands or to other citizens of such city or town, at a price not less than five dollars per acre, or fraction of an acre; and in case two or more persons apply for the same tract, they shall sell the same by auction to the highest bidder. And if any such lands remain unsold at the end of three months from the date of filing the plat thereof for record, as required herein, the corporate authorities or Judge as aforesaid, shall have power and authority to sell such vacant lands at public and private sale in such manner and on such terms as they may deem advisable for the best interests of the city or town, and shall give deeds therefor to the several purchasers.

SEC. 11. That all moneys arising from the sale of lands entered in trust by the corporate authorities of any city or town, or by the Judge of Probate under the said Act of Congress, after deducting all moneys paid for said lands and the expenses incurred in the management and execution of the trust, shall be paid into the County Treasury, for the support and maintenance of common schools in said city or town, to be applied and expended in such manner as shall be provided by law.

SEC. 12. That the several officers hereinafter mentioned may charge and collect the following fees for their service under this Act, viz: The Judge of Probate for hearing the proofs and giving judgment in each contested case, one dollar and fifty cents; in each case where there is no contest, one dollar; for preparing and executing each deed, fifty cents, exclusive of revenue stamps; for each certificate embodying a copy of the record of the decision of the court, twenty-five cents. The Clerk of the Probate Court for each summons or subpoena, twenty-five cents; for filing each statement and entering the same, ten cents; swearing each witness, five cents; for certificate and seal to each certificate of title, twenty-five cents; for each certificate of acknowledgment of deed, with seal, twenty-five cents; the Mayor of the City, for preparing and executing each deed of conveyance, fifty cents, exclusive of revenue stamps; the Sheriff or Constable for serving process of summons or subpoena, twenty-five cents; for each mile actually traveled in serving process, ten cents.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY

CHARTER

AND AMENDMENTS.

An ACT Incorporating Great Salt Lake City.

SEC. 1.—Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That all that district of country embraced in the following boundaries, to wit:—Beginning at a point one hundred and thirty-six rods north of the Hot Spring, thence west to the west bank of the Jordan river, thence up the west bank thereof to a point directly west from the south-west corner of the five acre lots according to the present survey, thence east along the south line of said lots to the southeast corner thereof, thence east nine hundred rods, thence north to a point directly east of the beginning, thence west to the aforesaid place of beginning, shall be known and designated by the name and style of Great Salt Lake City; and the inhabitants thereof are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic, by the name and style aforesaid, with perpetual succession; and shall have and use a common seal, which they may change and alter at their pleasure.

SEC. 2.—The inhabitants of said City, by the name and style aforesaid, shall have power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in all Courts of law and equity and in all actions whatsoever; to purchase, receive, hold, sell lease, convey and dispose of property real and personal for the benefit of said City, both within and without its corporate boundaries; to improve and protect such property, and do all other things in relation thereto as natural persons.

Wards.

SEC. 3.—Said City shall be divided into five Municipal Wards, whose boundaries shall be as prescribed by the City ordinance.

Government

SEC. 4.—The Municipal Government of said City is hereby vested in a City Council, to be composed of a Mayor, five Aldermen, one from each Ward, and nine Councilors, who shall have the qualifications of electors in said City, and shall be chosen by the qualified voters thereof, and shall hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Elections.

SEC. 5.—An election shall be held on the second Monday of February next, and every two years thereafter on said day, at which there shall be elected one Mayor, five Aldermen, nine Councilors, one Marshal, one Treasurer and one Recorder; and the persons respectively receiving the highest number of votes cast in the city for said offices shall be declared elected. When two or more candidates for an elective office shall have an equal number of votes for the same office, the election shall be determined by the City Council.

Officers.

First Election.

SEC. 6.—The first election under this act shall be conducted in the following manner, to wit:—The County Clerk of Great Salt Lake County shall cause notice of the time and place, and the number and kind of officers to be chosen, to be advertised in some newspaper of said city, or posted up in five public places therein, at least ten days previous to said election. Three Judges shall be selected by the Probate Judge of Great Salt Lake County, at least one week previous to the day of election; said Judges shall choose two Clerks; and the Judges and Clerks, before entering upon their duties, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation for the faithful discharge thereof. At the first election so held, the polls shall be opened at eight o'clock a. m., and shall close at six o'clock p. m. At the close of the election the Judges shall seal up the ballot box and the list of the names of the electors, and transmit the same, within two days, to the County Clerk of Great Salt Lake County. As soon as the returns are received, the County Clerk, in the presence of the Probate Judge, shall unseal and examine them, and furnish, within five days, to each person having the highest number of votes, a certificate of his election.

Subsequent Elections.

SEC. 7.—The manner of conducting and voting at all subsequent elections to be held under this act, and contesting the same, the keeping of the poll lists, canvassing the votes, and certifying the returns, and all other things relating thereto, shall be as provided by city ordinance.

SEC. 8.—There shall be appointed an Assessor and Collector, an Auditor of Public Accounts, a Supervisor of Streets, a Surveyor, an Attorney, a Board of School Inspectors, a Sealer of Weights and Measures, a Sexton or keeper of burial grounds, a Chief of Police, Inspectors, Measurers and Weighers, and such other officers and agents as the City Council may from time to time direct and appoint.

Officers
Appointed.

SEC. 9.—Every person elected or appointed to any office under the provisions of this act may be removed from such office by a vote of two-thirds of the City Council; and no officer shall be removed except for cause, nor unless furnished with the charges; and shall have an opportunity of being heard in his defence; and the Council shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers when necessary for the purpose of such trial, and shall proceed, within ten days, to hear and determine upon the merits of the case; and if such officer shall neglect to appear and answer to such charges, then the Council may declare the office vacant. All officers appointed by the Council may be removed at any time by vote, at discretion of two-thirds, of said Council; and any officer may be suspended until the disposition of charges preferred against him.

Removals.

SEC. 10.—Whenever any vacancy shall happen by the death, resignation, or removal of any officer, such vacancy may be filled by the City Council; and every person elected or appointed to an elective, judicial or administrative office, shall, before he enters upon the duties thereof, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation that he will support the Constitution of the United States, the laws of this Territory and the Ordinances of this city, and that he will well and truly perform all the duties of his office to the best of his knowledge and ability; and shall file the same, duly certified by the officer before whom it was taken, with the City Recorder.

Vacancies, how filled.

Oath.

SEC. 11.—Any person or persons illegally voting at any election under this act, shall be punishable according to law regulating general elections.

Illegal voting.

SEC. 12.—The Mayor shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, in addition to the usual oath, swear or affirm that he will devote so much of his time to the duties of his office as an efficient and faithful discharge thereof may require; and shall from time to time give the Council such information and recommend such measures as he may deem advantageous to the city.

Qualification and duties of Mayor
and Aldermen.

SEC. 13.—The Mayor and Aldermen shall be conservators of the peace within the limits of the city, and shall give bonds and qualify as other Justices of the Peace; and, when so qualified, shall possess the same power and jurisdiction, both in civil and criminal cases arising under the laws of the Territory, and may be commissioned as justices of the Peace in and for said city by the Governor. They shall account for and pay over to the city Treasurer, within three months, all fines and forfeitures received by them in their judicial capacity; and they shall each keep a docket, subject at all times to the inspection of the City Council and all other parties interested.

Jurisdiction.

SEC. 14.—The Mayor and Aldermen shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all cases arising under the ordinances of the city, and issue such process as may be necessary to carry such ordinances into execution and effect.

Recorder.

SEC. 15.—It shall be the duty of the Recorder to make and keep accurate records of all ordinances made by the City Council and all their proceedings in a corporate capacity; which record shall at all times be open to the inspection of the electors of the city and all other parties interested. He shall have and keep a plat of all surveys within the city, and record all deeds, transfers or other instruments of writing that may be presented to him for that purpose; and he is hereby authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, transfers and other instruments of writing, and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by city ordinance.

Duties.

Marshal.

SEC. 16.—The Marshal shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the City Council for the preservation of the public peace. All process issued by the Mayor or an Alderman shall be directed to the Marshal or his deputy; and in the execution thereof he shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may be provided by city ordinance, and shall be the principal ministerial officer.

Duties.

Treasurer.

SEC. 17.—The Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the city, and shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures in such manner as the City Council shall direct. He shall pay all moneys that may come to his hand, by virtue of his office, upon orders signed by the Auditor of Public Accounts, and shall report to the City Council a true account of his receipts and disbursements, as they may require.

Duties.

SEC. 18.—The City Council, a majority of whom shall form a quorum to transact business, shall meet at such times and places as they may direct; and the Mayor, when present, shall preside at said meetings and have a casting vote. In the absence of the Mayor, any Alderman present may be appointed to preside, in such manner as shall be provided by the City Council.

City Council.

SEC. 19.—The City Council shall hold stated meetings, and the Mayor or any two Aldermen may call special meetings, by notice to each of the members of said Council, served personally or left at their usual place of abode. Said Council shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, and be judge of the election and qualification of its own members.

Meetings

SEC. 20.—The City Council shall have the management and control of the finances and property, real, personal and mixed, belonging to the corporation.

Powers

SEC. 21.—The City Council is hereby empowered within the jurisdiction of the city, by ordinance and enforcement thereof, to prevent, punish or prohibit every kind of fraudulent device and practice; all descriptions of gaming, playing at dice, cards or other games of chance, with or without betting.

Further powers.

SEC. 22.—To license, tax, regulate, suppress or prohibit billiard tables, pin alleys, nine or ten pin alleys, or tables and ball alleys; to suppress or restrain bawdy and other disorderly houses and groceries; to authorize the destruction and demolition of all instruments and devices used for the purpose of gaming; to prevent any riot, noise, disturbance or disorderly assemblage; and to restrain and punish vagrants, mendicants, street beggars and prostitutes.

Books.

Provisions

SEC. 100. The Assessor may provide himself with suitable books, at the expense of the city; and shall make his residents' assessment list in alphabetical order, giving a description of all property assessed, adding thereto, under the head of unknown, all the real and personal estate within said city, not included in the assessment list of residents: Provided, that the real estate shall be described by the number of lot or portion thereof, and block and name of plat. He may, when necessary, leave with the person to be assessed, or at his residence, or place of business, a copy of the blank form of the assessment list, requiring him to fill and return the same to the Assessor within ten days; and any person furnished with said blank form must comply with the requirements, or be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Assessments corrected.

SEC. 101. If the Assessor shall discover any property which has not been assessed in some previous year, and which was liable to such assessment, the same shall be assessed for each year in which it was not assessed, at the value thereof, when the same should have been assessed, and the Assessor shall note the same upon his books.

Complaints.

SEC. 102. On the return of the assessment roll, the City Council shall appoint a time to hear complaints (if any), and determine the Assessor and Collector's compensation; also determine the rate per cent. of the City Tax for the current year, which shall not exceed five mills on the dollar to defray the contingent expenses of the city; also, not to exceed five mills on the dollar to open, improve and keep in repair the streets of the city; and not to exceed one-and-a-quarter mills on the dollar to control the waters of said city; and they shall annually apportion and apply said taxes as shall in their judgment be deemed most expedient.

Taxes.

SEC. 103. The Recorder shall, within twenty days after receiving the assessment list, set the amount of tax in the proper column, opposite the description of property, and furnish the Assessor and Collector with a correct copy of said list, with the amount of tax affixed to each name, or description of property, and file the original list with the office records.

Duty of Recorder

SEC. 104. When the Assessor and Collector receives the tax list, he shall immediately proceed to collect the tax, and pay the amount collected into the City Treasury, monthly, or oftener if required; and shall, on or before the thirty-first day of December in each year, make a full report to, and settlement with, the City Auditor.

Sales of Real Estate by Collector.

SEC. 108. In case of the sale of real estate, the Collector shall issue a certificate to the purchaser, reciting:—That, whereas the city taxes assessed on said property (describing the same) remain unpaid, as appears upon the books of the Collector, and said real estate having been duly advertised for sale, in conformity to the ordinance of the city, in such case made and provided; therefore, the real estate was sold at public auction to the purchaser, (naming him) for the amount of said taxes and costs, giving the date of the sale and in what papers published, and acknowledging the receipt of the amount paid by the purchaser.

Certificate
to issue to City.

SEC. 109. If, at such public sale, no person bid and pay the Collector the amount required to be paid, as aforesaid, on any real estate, the Collector shall make to the Mayor, for and in behalf of said city, a certicate, similar to that given to other purchasers, embracing, in one certificate, all such property in the city, offered for sale at public auction, as aforesaid; and such sale to the city shall have the same effect as if made to an individual.

SEC. 110. Said certificate to the city shall be delivered to the City Recorder, who shall keep the same in his office, and credit the Collector with the amount of tax assessed thereon; and within twenty days after any such sale, the Collector shall make out, in duplicate, a minute and specific report, or statement, of the sales made by him; one copy of which he shall cause to be recorded in the Recorder's office of Salt Lake County, and the other to be filed with the City Recorder, who shall record the same in a suitable book, for the inspection of all persons interested.

Certificate
to be delivered.

SEC. 111. Real estate sold for taxes, as aforesaid, may be redeemed by any person interested therein, at anytime within two years after the date of the sale thereof, by such person paying to the City Treasurer, for the use of the purchaser, or his legal representatives, the amount paid by such purchaser, and all costs, as aforesaid, with interest, at the rate of twenty-five per cent. per annum, on the whole, from the day of sale to that of the redemption, and all taxes that have accrued thereon and are unpaid at the time of the redemption, or which have been paid thereon by the purchaser after his purchase.

ing therefor and producing the Collector's certificate of the purchase, and endorsing thereon a receipt for the amount.

Deeds for property
sold for taxes.

SEC. 113. If any property sold, as aforesaid, be not redeemed within the time, and in the manner aforesaid, on presentation of the Collector's certificate, the Recorder shall make out and deliver a deed therefor, conveying the same to the individual purchaser, or his assignee, or to the city, as the case may be; which deed shall recite, substantially, the amount of the tax, the year for which it was assessed, the day and year of the sale, the amount for which the real estate was sold, a full description thereof, and the name of the purchaser or assignee.

Taxes of
persons.

SEC. 114. The Assessor and Collector is required and empowered to collect taxes, at the rate of the previous year, from any person he presumes will remove from the city before the regular time for collection, and to assess any person or property omitted during the time for assessments, and must report his doing under this section in the same manner as though done within the regular time.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REMOVALS.

Shall be heard.

SEC. 122. Every person elected or appointed to any office, under the provisions of the ninth section of an "Act Incorporating Salt Lake City," approved January 20, 1860, may be removed from such office by a vote of two-thirds of the City Council: Provided, that no elective officer shall be removed except for cause; nor unless furnished with the charges against him, and afforded an opportunity of being heard in his defence, and the council shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of papers when necessary, for the purpose of such trial, and shall proceed within ten days to hear and determine the case; and if such officer shall neglect to appear, and answer to such charges, then the council may declare the office vacant. The right of suspension from office, during the pending of such proceedings, shall rest with the Council, and whenever any vacancy shall happen by the death, resignation, or removal of any officer, such vacancy may be filled by the Council.

Council to fill vacancies.

SEC. 123. If any person elected, or appointed to any office under the corporate authority of this city, shall neglect, or fail to qualify as prescribed by ordinance within thirty days after notification of such election or appointment, the Council may declare such office vacant and proceed to fill the same by appointment.

SEC. 124. Every person elected or appointed to any office shall, before entering upon the duties thereof, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, that he will support the Constitution of the United States, the laws of this Territory, and the ordinances of this city, and that he will well and truly perform all the duties of his office, to the best of his knowledge and ability; and shall file the same, duly certified by the officer before whom it was taken, in the office of the City Recorder, unless otherwise provided for.

CHAPTER XII.

RELATING TO RAILROADS.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that all companies constructing Railroads within the limits of said City shall be subject to the following regulations: The grantees of all Railroads, shall, at their own expense, construct and keep in good repair all water sects, sewers, drains, street crossings, or receiving basins, and all fixtures connected therewith, and the distribution of water in said City as may be affected thereby. The construction, alterations and repairs to be done under the direction of the City Water Master, subject to the approval of the City Council.

SEC. 2. That it shall especially be incumbent on all railroad companies, at their own expense, to construct arches and bridges for all the cross streets, now or hereafter to be made, which will be intersected by the embankments, or excavations of their railroads, and also to make such embankments or excavations, as in the opinion of the City Council, may be required to make the passage over the railroad and embankments easy and convenient for all the purposes for which streets are usually used; and also all such drains and sewers, as their embankments and excavations may make necessary. And, further, that the said companies shall make their railroad paths conform to what is or may hereafter be the regulation or grade of the street or place through which their railroads pass; and no company shall have the right to take up, remove, carry away, or cause, or permit to be taken up, removed or carried away, any rock, gravel, earth or other material from any street or public place, for making embankments, grades, or for any other purpose, except by permission of the City Council, and under the direction of the street supervisor.

SEC. 3. That if, at any time after the construction of any railroad, it shall appear to the City Council that any part thereof shall constitute an obstruction or impediment to the ordinary use of any street or place, or be run contrary to the regulations of the City, the said railroad company or the officers thereof, shall, on the requisition of the City Council, forthwith provide a remedy for the same, satisfactory to said Council; or, if they fail to find such remedy, they shall, within one month after such requisition, proceed to remove such railroad obstruction or impediment, and to replace the street or place in as good condition as it was before the said railroad was laid down; and should the said company or officers neglect or refuse to obey such requisition, the City Council may, upon the expiration of the time limited in such notice, cause the obstruction or impediment to be removed, and the street or place restored, as aforesaid, at the expense of the said railroad company.

Crossing
tracks

SEC. 4. That nothing in any ordinance or resolution granting right of way, or franchise for railroad, shall be construed to prohibit any other railroad company from crossing any railroad track already laid, and when any railroad shall intersect any other railroad, the rails of each shall be so cut or altered as to permit the cars to pass without obstruction; and any person wilfully obstructing any railroad herein provided for, shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to both fine and imprisonment.

Speed.

SEC. 5. That the tracks of all railroads shall be laid in the centre of the streets, unless otherwise directed by the City Council, and all trains running therein are hereby prohibited from running at a greater speed than eight miles per hour; and the bells on locomotives in motion shall in all cases be rung continuously in the inhabited portions of the City, and all trains are required to come to a full stop before crossing any other line of railroad, and at a distance of not less than ten feet therefrom ; and when two trains arrive at the same crossing simultaneously, the train on the first constructed track shall have precedence in crossing, and no train, engine, or cars shall be allowed to stand in the street, or upon the sidewalks or crossing to obstruct the ordinary travel thereon. Any violation of the provisions of this section, shall render the offender liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to both fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 6. That the right of regulating the description of power to be used in the City in propelling cars on and along railroads, and the speed of the same, together with the price of the license or tax to be paid therefor, shall not, by virtue of any grant, or contract, be construed to mean that such right passes to the grantee ; but such rights, together with all other powers vested in said Council for the regulating, controlling or removing of railroads within said City, be and the same are expressly retained and reserved.

Rights
reserved.

The said road shall be free from City tax until the year one thousand, eight hundred and seventy four (1874).

SEC. 2. And be it further resolved, that this franchise is granted for the term of twenty-one years from and after the date of the passage of this Resolution, April 26, 1872, and accepted on the following conditions, viz: That if the grantee, its successors or assigns shall fail to keep and perform all the stipulations of this Resolution, the City Council after sixty days notice, and on failure on the part of said company to provide a remedy or make satisfactory arrangements therefor, may, by a two thirds vote, declare the privileges herein granted forfeited, and proceed to take possession of the road bed, and control the same as if this Resolution had not been passed.

SEC. 3. And be it further resolved, that if said grantees shall refuse or neglect to comply with the rules, regulations and ordinances of said City Council relating to Railroads and running of cars within the corporate limits of said City, they shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offence.

SEC. 4. And be it further resolved, that if this grant, with the terms and conditions herein contained, be not accepted in writing by said grantee within sixty (60) days after the passage of this Resolution, April 26, 1872, the same shall become void and of none effect.

ARTICLE II.

Granting to the Salt Lake City Railroad Company, the right to construct and operate a Street Railroad on certain streets in said City.

SEC. 1. Be it resolved by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that the right to construct and operate a Street Railroad, from the intersection of South Temple and First West Streets, north on said First West Street to the intersection thereof with Third North Street and from thence west on said Third North Street to the intersection thereof with Second West Street, be, and the same is, hereby granted to the said Salt Lake City Railroad Company, for the term of twenty-one (21) years, dated from the 26th day of April, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-two (1872), and subject to the same conditions, obligations, restrictions and provisions as are contained in a Resolution of said City Council granting to said Railroad Company the right to construct and operate a Street Railroad on certain streets therein named, approved April 26th A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-two (1872).

ARTICLE I.

RELATING TO THE MANUFACTURE AND DISTRIBUTION OF GAS.Term of franchise.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, James Jack, Thomas Williams and Thomas W. Ellerbeck, their associates, heirs, successors and assigns, are hereby vested with the right to manufacture gas and the privilege of using the streets, lanes and alleys of said City, for the purpose of conveying the same in said City, and to the citizens thereof for the term of twenty-one years from and after the date of the passage of this ordinance.

Use of streets.

SEC. 2. That the said P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, James Jack, Thomas Williams and Thomas W. Ellerbeck, their associates, heirs, successors and assigns, shall have and are hereby granted the right and authority to use the streets, lanes and alleys of said City for the introduction of pipes and other apparatus for gas; Provided: That such streets, lanes and alleys, shall be repaired to the satisfaction of the said City Council within a reasonable time; and provided also, that the said streets, lanes and alleys shall not at any time be unnecessarily obstructed, and all gas pipes shall be laid under the direction of the City Council of said City.

SEC. 3. That in consideration of the privileges hereby granted to the said P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, James Jack, Thomas Williams and Thomas W. Ellerbeck, their associates, heirs, successors and assigns, they, the said P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, James Jack, Thomas Williams, and Thomas W. Ellerbeck, their associates, heirs, successors and assigns shall construct their works and furnish gas for the said City and citizens thereof within one year from the date of the passage of this ordinance: Provided, That the price of gas so furnished to the citizens of said City shall not, during the existence of this franchise, exceed four dollars per one thousand cubic feet, nor shall the price of gas so furnished for the use of said City exceed the lowest average price at which gas shall or may be furnished to the private citizens as aforesaid; and, provided further, that the quality of gas so furnished shall be as good as is or may be furnished to any other city in any of the Territories of the United States, or in the Pacific States; and such gas to be furnished as aforesaid shall be subjected from time to time, as said City Council may direct, to such test as shall determine its quality; and such gas shall be furnished as aforesaid in such quantity as the said City Council may at any time require for public lamps and for public use.

SEC. 6. That the said P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, James Jack, Thomas Williams, and Thomas W. Ellerbeck, their associates, heirs, successors and assigns, shall submit their proposed location for gas works to, and obtain the approval thereof by, the City Council of said City.

ry failure.

SEC. 7. That the privileges hereby granted shall not be forfeited by any temporary failure on the part of the said P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, James Jack, Thomas Williams and Thomas W. Ellerbeck, their associates, heirs, successors and assigns, to comply with and perform any of the conditions from them exacted in this ordinance, or any contract or articles of agreement made in pursuance hereof as hereinbefore provided: Provided, such failures be remedied within a reasonable time.

ARTICLE II.

Articles of agreement made in duplicate, and entered into by and between Salt Lake City, a municipal corporation, by the Mayor of said city, party of the first part, and P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, Thomas W. Ellerbeck, James Jack and Thomas Williams, who, by virtue of an ordinance passed by the City Council of Salt Lake City, March 8th, 1872, entitled "An Ordinance relating to the Manufacture and Distribution of Gas," have been vested with the right and privilege of using the streets, lanes and alleys of said City for the purpose of conveying gas to the said City and citizens thereof, for the term of twenty-one years from the date of the passage of said ordinance party of the second part Witnesseth that the said party of the first part, for, and in consideration of, the promises, covenants, and agreements of the said party of the second part, hereinafter set forth, doth hereby covenant and agree to and with the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, as follows, viz. : That from the present time and until the complete expiration of a term of ten years from the eighth day of March, A. D., eighteen hundred and seventy-two (1872), the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, shall have, and hereby are granted, the sole right and privilege to erect, establish, maintain and operate all buildings, machinery and works which the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, may deem necessary, or may desire, for the manufacture and distribution of illuminating wood or coal gas, within Salt Lake City, to lay pipes under and along all and any of the streets, lanes and alleys of said City, in such manner and to such extent, within stated periods, as shall be hereinafter set forth, for the purpose of distributing said gas throughout said City; and to sell said gas to all persons, corporations or associations within the said City desiring to purchase the same; and, generally, to have all rights and privileges, subject to the restrictions of these articles of agreement, necessary to the proper and successful prosecution of the business of making, distributing and selling illuminating gas in said Salt Lake City, it being understood, however, that the manufacture of gas by any person on his own premises for his private use is in no manner prohibited by this agreement.

And the said party of the first part doth hereby further covenant and agree to and with the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, that they will not let, demise or grant, to any person, company or corporation, the right to establish gas-works within the corporate limits of said Salt Lake City; or to open, occupy or use any of the streets, lanes or alleys of said City for the purpose of laying pipes or other apparatus therein, for conveying, conducting or distributing gas, from the present time and until the complete expiration of a term of ten years from the eighth day of March, A. D., eighteen hundred and seventy-two (1872), unless the rights and privileges, which, by virtue of the said ordinance hereinbefore mentioned, have been, and by virtue of these articles of agreement, hereby are, granted to the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, shall have become duly forfeited to the said party of the first part, as hereinafter provided.

Forfeit.

And the said party of the first part doth hereby further covenant and agree to and with the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, that any person, company, or corporation, who may hereafter acquire or procure, from the said party of the first part, the right and privilege to establish gas-works, and to lay pipes in the streets of said Salt Lake City, for the purpose of conveying, conducting, or distributing gas, shall and will be restricted from laying any of said pipes nearer than two and one half feet off the pipes then laid, or that may thereafter be laid by the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, except where it may become necessary for said pipes to cross each other.

And in consideration of the foregoing premises, covenants and agreements of the said party of the first part, the said party of the second part, do, for themselves, their heirs, successors and assigns, hereby covenant and agree, to and with the said party of the first part, as follows, viz. : That within three months after the 30th day of March, A. D., eighteen hundred and seventy-two, the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, will commence actual operations for the construction of the necessary works, for the said purpose of manufacturing, distributing and selling gas ; that on or before the eighth day of March, A. D., eighteen hundred and seventy-three (1873), the said gas-works shall be so far completed as to enable the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, to manufacture a good quality of illuminating gas ; that at said last mentioned time, the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, will have distributing pipes of sufficient capacity laid, ready for use, from the point or place where the said gas is manufactured, in and through the streets being and lying within, and to the extent of the following limits, to wit : South Temple to Third South Street ; east to Second East Street ; north to Second North Street ; and west to Third West Street and place of beginning ; and be ready to furnish such gas, along the line of said pipes, to all the city street lamps that shall or may be erected within the limits above mentioned, and to all persons, bodies or associations within the said limits desiring to purchase and use the same. That, as soon thereafter as practicable, the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, will lay pipes, distribute and sell gas, on any and all streets respectively of Salt Lake City, so far as there may be any reasonable demand for said gas on such streets, or as the said party of the first part, through its City Council, may, from time to time, by resolution or ordinance, reasonably require said pipes to be extended. That the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, will, at all times, be controlled and governed by the ordinance or ordinances of Salt Lake City then in force, relating to the manner of laying distributing pipes, and of making and guarding excavations therefor ; that the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, will be responsible for any damage, either to person or property, resulting from any act or negligence of theirs ; that said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, will, at all times, furnish a full and sufficient supply, to meet the demands thereof, of said illuminating gas, and of as good an average quality as is furnished to any city in any of the Territories of the United States, or Pacific States, unless prevented by accident or other cause beyond their control, in which event said obstacle shall be removed and overcome without unnecessary delay ; that said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, will, gas.

And the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, doth hereby further agree to and with the said party of the first part, "for the purpose of reducing the price of gas," as follows, viz.: That when the quantity of gas sold or consumed from said gas-works in said Salt Lake City shall reach in amount, or indicate the consumption of, one hundred and twenty-five thousand (125,000) cubic feet per day, the price of said gas shall be reduced fifty cents per thousand, and from such date thereafter the price shall not be in excess of three dollars and fifty cents per thousand cubic feet; and when the quantity of said gas sold or consumed shall reach in amount, or indicate the consumption of, one hundred and seventy-five thousand (175,000) cubic feet per day, the price of said gas shall again be reduced fifty cents per thousand. The price of said gas to the inhabitants of said Salt Lake City shall not be in excess of three dollars per one thousand cubic feet, corresponding reduction in price to be made for the City street lamps and City Hall. The said party of the first part may appoint an examiner, who shall, from time to time, have access to the books of the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of gas consumed.

And it is hereby further understood and agreed to, by and between the parties to these presents, that the rights and privileges which, by virtue of the said ordinance hereinbefore mentioned, have been, and which, by virtue of these articles of agreement hereby are, granted to the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, are granted upon this express condition, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: that if the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, shall not well and truly keep, perform and fulfil all and singular the covenants and agreements by them to be kept, performed and fulfilled, according to the true intent and meaning of these presents, then, and in that case, it shall and may be lawful for the said party of the first part, through its City Council, to annul this grant. And thereupon the franchise granted by virtue of said ordinance shall revert to the said party of the first part as fully and completely as if this agreement had never been executed, or said ordinance passed; Provided, however, that before any action is taken to annul or vacate this grant, or any part thereof, the said party of the first part shall, through its City Council, cause a notice in writing to be served upon the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, which said notice shall fully specify the covenant or article of agreement of which the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, may be in default at the date of said notice.

And if, at the end of thirty days after the service of said notice, the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors or assigns, shall still be in default, or

In witness of all which, the said party of the first part, by and through its Mayor, who hath been by the said party of the first part thereunto duly authorized, hath hereunto subscribed its corporate name, and affixed its common corporate seal. And,

In witness of all which, the said party of the second part, have hereunto set their hands and seals.

ARTICLE III.

Resolution Relating to Articles of Agreement.

Be it resolved by the City Council of Salt Lake City that the articles of agreement made by and between Salt Lake City, through the Mayor of said city, and P. Lalor Sherry, George A. Smith, Thomas W. Ellerbeck, James Jack and Thomas Williams, in relation to the establishment of gas works in Salt Lake City, be, and the same are, hereby approved, and the Mayor is hereby duly authorized to execute the same in behalf of said Salt Lake City, and to affix the corporate seal of said city thereto.

ARTICLE IV.

Resolution Approving the Location of the Salt Lake City Gas Company's Works, and for other purposes.

Be it resolved, by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that the location of the Salt Lake City Gas Company's Works, on lot one (1), in block eighty-two (82), plat A, Salt Lake City survey, be, and the same is, hereby approved.

Be it further resolved, that the Salt Lake City Gas Company have the privilege of constructing a railroad siding from said gas works, on lot one (1), block eighty-two (82), plat A, Salt Lake City survey, on or across Fourth West Street, upon a practicable curve, to connect, as short as possible, with the Utah Central Railroad.

And be it further resolved, that the said Salt Lake City Gas Company, be, and are, hereby granted the right to control and use the water issuing from a spring near the north-west corner of block eighty-three (83), plat A, Salt Lake City survey, with the privilege of conducting the same, (in pipes or otherwise) across Fourth West Street to the aforesaid Salt Lake City Company's gas works; Provided: That these grants shall continue in force during the existence of the present Charter of the Salt Lake City Gas Company.

CHAPTER XV.

FOR THE PREVENTION OF FIRES.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that no person shall set off any fireworks, set up any stove, furnace or other apparatus in which fire is to be kept, or carry fire in the streets, without observing the following regulations, under penalty of not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

SEC. 2. No person shall be allowed within the limits of the City to discharge or set off any rocket, squib, cracker or other fireworks without the consent of the Mayor, specifying the time when and the place where the same may be done.

SEC. 3. No stove or other apparatus in which fire is to be kept shall be set nearer than eight inches from the floor except such as have no fireplace on the lower plate; such can be set within four inches of the floor on which they stand; and the top and the side plates thereof shall not be set nearer than twelve inches off any wood partition, or other wood-work without protecting the same effectually from fire, by a metal lie, or other covering; and no pipe belonging thereto shall be put up, unless it shall be conducted into a chimney made of brick, stone or other incombustible material, or if passing through the woodwork case.

Be it resolved by the City Council of Salt Lake City that, in view of the probability of the City being infected with the smallpox, the Quarantine Physicians are hereby ordered to immediately quarantine or isolate every case reported to and decided by them to be smallpox, or varioloid; and are hereby authorized to make and enforce any regulations necessary in the premises. In case of neglect or refusal on the part of any person to comply with the requirement of the law in reference to removal, or otherwise, upon the report of the physicians to that effect to the Mayor or any Alderman, the said Mayor or Alderman shall issue an order to the City Marshal, who shall immediately call to his aid the necessary assistance and proceed to carry out the requirement of the law.

CHAPTER XVIII.

IN RELATION TO QUARANTINE.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that said City and all that district of country embraced within twelve miles of the outer limits thereof, be, and the same are, hereby declared subject to quarantine regulations.

SEC. 2. The City Council shall appoint one or more quarantine physicians, each of whom, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe an oath, and give bonds in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance thereof, who, associated with the Mayor, shall constitute a Board of Quarantine, and whose duty it shall be to make and enforce quarantine regulations within the above described quarantine limits.

Board of
tine.

SEC. 3. That if any person or persons shall be found in an unhealthy condition from any contagious disease, within the aforesaid quarantine limits, they shall, if in the judgment of said Board of Quarantine the safety of the person so infected, or the public, shall render such action necessary, be required to remove forthwith to such place, within said limits as said Board may direct; and if any such person shall neglect or refuse to comply therewith, it shall be the duty of said Board to have it done at the expense of

said person ; and if in the judgment of said Board it shall be deemed advisable for the person so infected to remain in his usual place of abode for care and treatment, the said Board shall compel the strict quarantining of said place of abode, by causing to be kept displayed conspicuously during the period of danger a yellow flag upon such premises, as well as by establishing a guard at, or near the same ; by giving notice in the most public manner practicable that said premises are infected ; and, further, by regulating and prohibiting ingress and egress to and from said premises, until all danger from infection therein shall have ceased, and the most thorough measures for disinfecting said premises shall have been taken. And if the effects of any person be found in a condition liable to engender contagious disease, the same shall, at the discretion of the quarantine physician, be removed or destroyed at the expense of the owner thereof ; and in the event of the removal of any person so infected, the premises from which he is removed, and the household thus exposed, shall be strictly quarantined until all danger of infection shall have passed ; and such measures for the purification of said premises shall be taken as in the judgment of the quarantine physicians shall be necessary.

Reporting
cases.

SEC. 4. The names of all quarantine physicians shall be published in some newspaper printed in Salt Lake City, during the continuance of the contagion. All physicians or other persons having any knowledge of the existence of any malignant contagious disease, or having reason to believe any such disease exists, are hereby required to report the same forthwith to a quarantine physician ; and physicians, nurses, or any other persons who have been or shall be exposed to such contagious disease, are hereby forbidden to mingle with or be in the presence of others subject to the contagion, in such clothing as may have been used where there was such disease, or otherwise expose any person to such contagion.

SEC. 5. Any person neglecting or refusing to comply with the above requirements shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not to exceed six months, or both fine and imprisonment. Refusal.

SEC. 6. That an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance regulating Quarantine" passed March 12th, 1850, and an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance in relation to Quarantine," passed July 28th, 1871, be, and the same are, hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XIX.

RELATING TO PAWNBROKERS.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that all persons before receiving license as pawnbrokers shall produce, to the Mayor or City Council, satisfactory evidence of their good character to engage in or carry on such business.

SEC. 2. Every person so licensed shall, at the time of receiving such license, give bonds with two sureties, to the acceptance of the City Recorder, in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the due observance of all ordinances passed by the City Council, or in force respecting pawnbrokers, at any time during the continuance of such license, and shall keep posted up in his place of business a copy of all ordinances relating to pawnbrokers.

Accounts
to be kept.

SEC. 3. Every pawnbroker shall keep a book, in which shall be fairly written, at the time of each loan, an accurate account and description of the goods, article or thing pawned, the amount of money loaned thereon, the time of the pledging of the same, the rate of interest to be paid on such loan, and the name and residence of the person pawning or pledging the said goods, article or thing.

Note to be given.

SEC. 4. Every pawnbroker shall, at the time of each loan, deliver to the person pawning or pledging any goods, article or thing, a memorandum or note signed by him, containing the substance of the entry required to be made in his book by the last preceding section, and no charge shall be made or received by any pawnbroker for any such entry, memorandum or note.

SEC. 5. The said book shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of the Mayor, Recorder or Aldermen of the City, or of any person who shall be duly authorized in writing for that purpose, by either of them, and who shall exhibit such written authority to such pawnbrokers.

SEC. 6. Every pawnbroker who shall violate, or neglect, or refuse to comply with any or either of the provisions of the second, third, fourth, or fifth sections of this ordinance, shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars for every such offence.

SEC. 7. No pawnbroker shall ask, demand, or receive any greater rate of interest than forty per cent. per annum, upon any loan not exceeding the sum of twenty-five dollars, or, than twenty-four per cent. per annum upon any loan exceeding the sum of twenty-five dollars, under the penalty of one hundred dollars for every such offence.

Rate to be charged.

SEC. 8. No pawnbroker shall sell any pawn or pledge until the same shall have remained one year in his possession, and all such sales shall be at public auction and not otherwise, and shall be made or conducted by such auctioneer as shall be approved of, for that purpose, by the Mayor.

Sale of pawns.

SEC. 9. Notice of every such sale shall be published, for at least ten consecutive days previous thereto, in one or more of the daily newspapers having general circulation, printed in Salt Lake City; and such notice shall specify the time and place at which such sale is to take place, the name of the auctioneer by whom the sale is to be conducted, and a description of the goods or articles to be sold.

Notice of sale.

SEC. 10. The surplus money, if any, arising from such sale, after deducting the amount of the loan and the interest then due on the same, shall be paid over by the pawnbroker to the person who would be entitled to redeem the pledge in case no such sale had taken place.

Surplus money.

SEC. 11. No pawnbroker shall, under any pretence whatever, purchase or buy any second-hand furniture, metals or clothes, or any other article, or thing whatever, offered to him as a pawn or pledge.

From whom to take nothing in pawn.

SEC. 12. No pawnbroker shall receive any goods, article, or thing, in pawn or pledge, of a person who is intoxicated, and known to be an habitual drunkard, a thief, or an insane person; or on being notified in writing by any responsible person of the character, habits or condition of such person or persons; nor shall said pawnbroker receive a pawn or pledge of any person under fourteen years of age.

SEC. 13. Every pawnbroker who shall violate, or neglect, or refuse to comply with, either of the provisions of the eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth sections of this ordinance, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars into the City Treasury.

the sum of one per cent. of all moneys received on all goods sold by him, and give bonds to said city, with approved securities, in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the honest and due performance of all duties as herein required, which bonds shall be approved by and filed in the office of the City Recorder.

Bonds.

SEC. 2. That all auctioneers so licensed shall receive all articles which they may be required to sell at auction, and give receipts for the same; and at the close of any sale shall deliver a fair account of such sale and pay the amount received for such articles to the person or persons entitled thereto, deducting therefrom a commission not to exceed ten per cent. on the amount of such sales.

Commission.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of every auctioneer, licensed as aforesaid, to pay the sum of one per cent. into the City Treasury on all sums realized on all goods or chattels by him sold, monthly, or oftener if required; and in accounting for such sales it shall be incumbent on every auctioneer to make his returns under oath or affirmation, and exhibit to the City Recorder his books of sales when required so to do by said recorder; and should any auctioneer neglect or refuse to comply with the foregoing requirements, he shall forfeit his license, and be liable to pay a fine in any sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

Sworn returns.

SEC. 4. All auctioneers are hereby forbidden to sell, or expose for sale, any kind of property so near the streets as to cause people to gather in crowds on the sidewalks so as to obstruct the same, or to use immoral or indecent language in crying their goods, or to

CHAPTER XXI.

RELATING TO DOGS.

Tax.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that it shall not be lawful for any person to own or keep a dog within the limits of this City, without making application to the City Recorder for that purpose, and shall pay to said Recorder, for the benefit of the City, an annual tax of three dollars. The Recorder shall register the applicant's name and a description of the dog, and give to said applicant a certificate of registry. Any person found violating this section shall be liable to a fine in any sum not less than three nor more than ten dollars for each offence.

SEC. 2. All dogs so registered shall wear a suitable collar with the owner's name or initials of the same inscribed thereon, together with the number corresponding with the certificate of registry, and all dogs found at large not registered and collared as aforesaid shall be liable to be killed by any person. Collar.

SEC. 3. Any female dog found running at large while in heat shall be liable to be killed, and the owner or possessor thereof to a fine in any sum not exceeding fifteen dollars. Female dog.

SEC. 4. Any owner or possessor of a dog permitting or suffering the same to enter or be in any place of worship during public service, shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding five dollars for each offence. Place of worship.

SEC. 5. If any owner or possessor of a fierce, dangerous or mischievous dog, permit the same to go at large, he shall be liable to be fined for the first offence in the sum of five dollars; for the second offence the sum of ten dollars; and upon the third conviction for the like offence shall pay fifteen dollars, and the city marshal shall immediately cause said dog to be killed. The said marshal is hereby authorized to cause the destruction of all dogs not registered according to the provisions of this ordinance. Fierce dog.

SEC. 6. Any person who shall kill, or cause to be killed, any dog registered as provided in this ordinance, without the consent of the owner, or possessor thereof, or deprive a registered dog of its collar, Registered dog not to be killed.

or put a collar on any dog not registered, shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

SEC. 7. This ordinance shall take effect from and after the first day of April next.

SEC. 8. "An ordinance relating to dogs" passed April 27th, 1860, be and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XXII.

MODE OF PROCEDURE IN CASES ARISING UNDER CITY ORDINANCES.

Issue warrant.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that whenever a complaint is made before the Mayor or an Alderman of said City, on oath or affirmation; or if the Mayor or Alderman has personal knowledge that a breach of the ordinances of the city has been committed, he shall forthwith issue a warrant, directed to the Marshal, commanding him or any of his deputies to arrest the accused and bring him or them forthwith before said Mayor or Alderman for examination or trial.

Peace officers arrest.

SEC. 2. Any peace officer of the City witnessing any breach of the ordinances shall arrest the offender, or cause it to be done, with or without process, and bring him before the Mayor or an Alderman, to be dealt with according to the provisions of the ordinances without unnecessary delay.

SEC. 3. Any person may arrest another in the commission of an offence against the ordinances of said city, and must, without unnecessary delay, take the offender before the Mayor, or one of the Aldermen, or deliver him to the nearest peace officer of said city.

Any person may arrest.

SEC. 4. When any person shall be brought before the Mayor or an Alderman, charged with the commission of an offence, such person shall be examined or tried without unnecessary delay; Provided: That when necessary such person may be detained in the city prison not to exceed forty-eight hours before trial.

Detention.

SEC. 5. The Court shall issue subpoenas, directed to the proper officer, for the witnesses, if required, and shall forthwith proceed to hear the evidence, and determine upon the complaint alleged; Provided: That neither party shall have more than three witnesses to prove any one fact, except at his own expense, and that complaint in writing shall not be necessary, unless demanded by the defence.

Witnesses limited.

SEC. 6. Upon good cause shown, the Court may postpone the trial, and shall require the defendant to enter into recognizance with sufficient security, to appear at such time as the Court may determine, to answer the complaint made against him. If he fail to give such security, he shall be held in custody, or be committed to prison until the time of trial.

Recognizance.

SEC. 7. The defendant on being brought before the Court, shall be informed of the charge preferred against him, or the complaint when made in writing shall be read, and he shall be enquired of, whether guilty or not guilty. If he plead guilty the Court may enquire into the extent of guilt and render judgment; if he plead not guilty, or refuses to answer, the evidence on the part of the prosecution shall be heard, then that of the defence; after which, if either party can satisfy the Court that important evidence which he can procure is still wanting, reasonable time may be granted to procure such evidence. When all the evidence is heard, the prosecution and defense may make such applicable remarks as shall be deemed proper, and the Court shall render judgment as soon as practicable.

Docket.

SEC. 8. The Court shall keep a docket-book, in which shall be entered the title and nature of the complaint, the names of the witnesses who testified in the case, the proceedings thereon and the judgment of the Court.

Imprisonment at labor.

SEC. 9. If the defendant fails to pay the fine and costs awarded in the judgment against him, the Court shall issue an execution against the defendant, committing him to imprisonment at labor, either with or without a ball and chain attached to his person; Provided: That property may be delivered by the defendant, or the same may be taken by the officer, in sufficient quantity to satisfy said execution, which shall be disposed of as hereinafter directed.

SEC. 10. When property is delivered or taken to satisfy a judgment, the Marshal shall give public notice of time and place of sale, and description of the kind of property to be sold, allowing ten days from the levy of execution to the day of sale, unless the interest of the defendant shall require a shorter time, and shall sell the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and make returns within five days from the day of sale, and pay over to the Court the proceeds arising therefrom, and the excess if any shall be paid over to the defendant, and all fines collected by the Mayor or Alderman, shall be paid into the City Treasury, monthly, or oftener if required.

Returns of sale.

SEC. 11. If required by either party, the Court shall issue a venire, requiring the Marshal, or deputy, to summon six competent persons, or a less number if agreed upon by the parties, to serve as jurors, who may be objected to for cause; Provided: That either party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges. If any are removed, their places shall be filled; and when the number is complete, they shall be sworn to give a just verdict, according to the law and evidence, and to have no communication with any but the Court personally, or through the officer, or with a fellow juror, in reference to the case before them, until they have agreed upon a verdict, or been discharged. The Court may direct the jury to bring in a sealed verdict in case of an agreement during a recess.

Challenges.

Verdict.

SEC. 12: Upon complaint being made in writing and under oath, before the Mayor or any Alderman, that any person has threatened to commit an offence against the person or property of another, said Mayor or Alderman may issue a warrant, reciting the substance of the complaint, commanding the Marshal or any of his deputies, forthwith to bring the person so charged before him to answer said complaint, and if, on examination, the court is satisfied from the testimony that there are sufficient grounds to fear such an offence will be committed by the person complained of, he shall require the offender to enter into recognizance in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars to keep the peace towards the people of said city, and particularly toward the complainant, for a term not exceeding six months. If the offender fail to give bonds with securities when required, he may be imprisoned until he give such bonds, not, however, exceeding sixty days.

Search for stolen
property.

SEC. 13. Whenever a complaint shall be made before the Mayor, or any Alderman, in writing and under oath, of property having been stolen or embezzled, and that he believes such property to be concealed in any house, or place (describing the property and place) within the limits of said city, and the Mayor or Alderman is satisfied that there is reasonable ground for such belief, he shall issue a warrant commanding the Marshal or any of his deputies to search diligently the house or place where such property is believed to be secreted, and said Marshal shall make returns of his doings without delay; and all property recovered under such process shall be subject to the order of the court.

person.

SEC. 14. Persons taken into custody, charged with larceny, shall be liable to be searched by the officer making the arrest, for money or other property described in the complaint, and if found the same may be taken and held subject to the order of the court, and persons arrested for any offence may be disarmed.

Reward.

SEC. 15. The Mayor is authorized to issue his proclamation offering a reward of such an amount as he, in his discretion, may deem proper for the arrest, and delivery to the proper officer, of any person who may be charged with crime committed within the city, whenever he shall have knowledge of such occurrence or receive information in relation thereto from any responsible person or persons.

SEC. 16. All criminal prosecutions arising under the ordinances of this city, must be commenced and carried on in the name of Salt Lake City.
